Ishpriya is the founder of the International Satsang Association and a member of the Society of the Sacred Heart. She left Europe for India in 1971 and lived for many years in the foothills of the Himalayas, a Christian presence among Hindu Sanyasis, committed to Inter-faith dialogue in a spirit of mutual understanding and common search. On returning to Europe, together with Sr.Gitti, Sr.Ishpriya founded Die Quelle (The Source) a centre in Austria.

She continues to travel conducting Retreats, Satsangs and Seminars in many countries across all 5 continents. She holds a doctorate in Psychology from the University of London and brings insights from the East and the West, well-adjusted to daily life in global times. People from all over the world seek her compassionate and perceptive spiritual guidance.

Ishpriya has much to teach, and we welcome her back to Emmaus
